

SPRING SYMPOSIUM 2002

by Claudette Cotter

It's that time of year again – this year our Spring Symposium is to be held on Saturday, April 27, 2002. Once again, we will be at the Radisson Hotel (f/k/a Holiday Inn Southeast), 225 and Parker Road (1-800-Holiday.)

AGENDA:

7:30 A.M. Past President's Breakfast

8 – 9 A.M. Registration & Continental Breakfast

9 – 10:30 Sue Mencer, who leads the state Department of Public Safety, a former FBI agent, moved from Washington, D.C. to Colorado in 1990 to supervise FBI programs dealing with international and domestic terrorism, foreign counter-intelligence and civil rights. The hot topic will be current events!

10:45-12:15 David Thomas, Jefferson County District Attorney, will talk about Columbine – Three Years After.

2-3:30 Gayle Davis, Ph.D. and Licensed Psychologist in private practice, who has been involved with sports psychology for more than 20 years, author of High Performance Thinking for Business, Sports, and Life, will discuss training techniques regarding mind over muscle.

3:45-5:15 Robbyn R. Wacker, Ph.D. and Associate Dean at UNC, Professor/Gerontology, will discuss aging, myths and realities; what happens to us as we age, biological aspects of aging, physical, social and psychological aspects of aging, and what the future holds.

5:30 - ? Executive Board Meeting

A registration form will be contained in the next Ramblings and also mailed separately. The registration deadline is April 12, 2002. Please plan to attend and support your CCRA. We anticipate being awarded .6-plus units for this one-day event. Please note! The above agenda is subject to change.
